The STEM Studio Collaborative Framework

Collaboration across higher education, high school systems and industry partners in a 'third space' To enhance the quality of pre-service teacher education in secondary science and mathematics.

Australian Government

Department of Education and Training

The STEM Studio Collaborative framework was created by STEM Studio team at QUT, published under a Creative Commons Attribution Licence. The Step Up project, supported by the Australian Government Department of Education and Training. www.stepup.edu.au/model-approaches/stem-studio